

Tie adds two students to 'Top Ten Seniors'

A three-way tie for one position on the "Top Ten Senior" list gave the honor to 12 students instead of the usual ten. The only other time more than ten were honored was in 1970 when 11 were listed.

This year's Top Ten Seniors were Donna Avery, Tim Blumer, Blake Box, Allison Brooks, Jan Costello, Greg Jenkins, David Jones, Mike McLane, Anne Nobles, Penny Simmons, Bill Thornton and Carol Vahue.

Ninety students were on the ballot each meeting the three qualifications of having at least an 85 grade average, no truancies and being nominated by more than one faculty member.

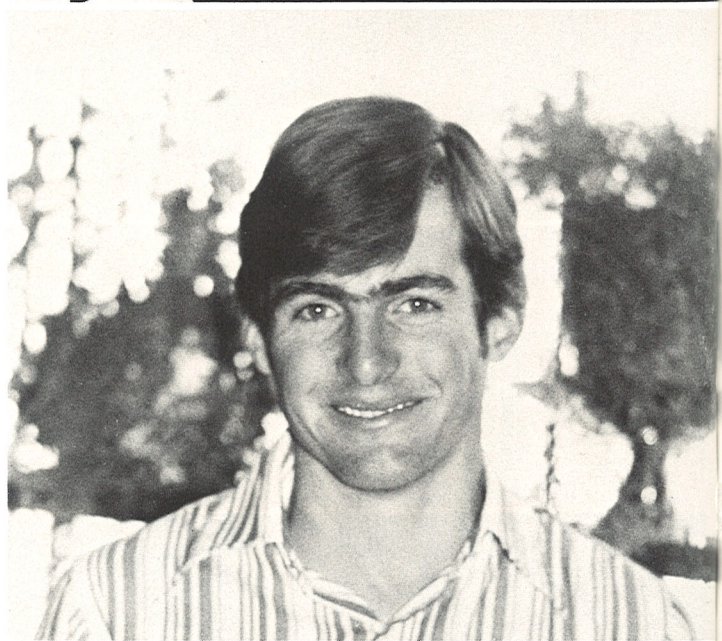

Junior Top Ten Selection Committee made up of 21 junior students and the Faculty Awards Committee chose the honorees.
